

CPC #15: Blood is a Magnetohydrodynamic Fluid That Links the Sun to Your Mitochondria

I have a sense when 5 G is released this blog will be the most important one people will search. Why? In it has most of the key mito-hacks that one will need to consider to offset electromagnetic diseases linked to 5G exposure. Blood is magnetohydrodynamic fluid. What does this mean to the 'mitochondria'?? Oxygenated blood is repelled by the magnets. This means oxygenated blood is diamagnetic within the hemoglobin molecule.

BLOOD IS A HYDRODYNAMIC NON
NEWTONIAN FLUID
THAT CONNECTS THE
SUN TO MITOCHONDRIA
WIRELESSLY. THIS IS NATURE'S WIFI.
