

November 2018 Webinar: 5G Hit, What to do?

The predictions I made 5 years ago about blue light and nEMF will now be tested on humans. If you live in California pay attention to the news now in your local area. Why? I think the first people who will know something is amiss in our environments are ER physicians and ICU nurses and hospitalist doctors who begin to see infections that devolve into sepsis rather quickly without much warning.
