

Relationship Redox #6: Shoes

In about four hours from now my life is going to change. I am not sure if it will be for the better or not.....but it reminds me of an old pair of shoes I wore to my first ever job interview in NYC with the Sterling National Bank CEO. After talking with me, the CEO of the bank sent me to Barney's of New York to see his tailor. There I got a new pair of shoes and a brand new suit courtesy of my new boss.
